Coin Operated Amusement Device. Any machine which, upon the insertion of a coin, currency, token, slug, debit card, credit card, or other electronic method of payment or upon the payment of any fee, operates or may be operated by the public generally as a game or contest of skill or amusement of any kind or description and which does not provide for any tangible payoff, reward or return of token or fee to the player. The term shall mean and include any pinball, video or computer game, ball table or marble machine or any other similar type of game, machine or table in which any ball, sphere, missile, arm, vehicle, crane, rod or plunger is struck, released, controlled or manipulated for the purpose of amusement or skill or any electrical machine or game controlled or manipulated for the purpose of amusement or skill and in which a test of skill is involved. The term also means and includes any machine vending recorded music or a period of radio or television entertainment in return for the insertion or deposit therein of a coin, currency, token or slug, debit card, credit card, or other electronic method of payment; provided, however, that this does not include coin operated radios or televisions within private quarters. The term also means and includes any billiard, pool table or bumper pool table, the operation of which is dependent upon the use of a coin to obtain balls. The term shall include any such game which is played with the use of a table, cue sticks and pool balls or billiard balls likewise dependent upon the use of any coin for payment, by automatic means.
